CTHA Holiday Party

Pot Luck Dinner & "Horsey" Gift Exchange

Saturday, December 5, 2015 6:00 PM

Exciting New Location!

the Bowen Center for the Arts in Dawsonville

334 Highway 9 North, Dawsonville, GA 30534

The Bowen Arts Center is located in a historic, beautifully restored, rock building in downtown Dawsonville on Highway 9 one block north of the intersection with Highway 53. Park in the adjacent Dawson Elementary School parking lot and walk up the steps to the Bowen Arts Center.

Artwork from a juried art show and holiday décor with an equestrian flair will deck the halls for our party. Get your picture taken on the Dawsonville white stallion!

The Bowen Arts Center provides tables, chairs, tablecloths and kitchen facilities, but we'll need a few volunteers to help set up beforehand and clean up and put things away afterwards.

To learn about this delightful facility, visit their website www.dawsonarts.org.

Pot Luck Dinner

Chick-fil-a tenders, baked ham, tea, coffee, water, table service items provided.

You should bring the kind of crowd-sized, holiday-favorite dish assigned to the first letter of your last name as follows:

A thru E—Appetizer

F thru T—Casserole, Veggie or
Salad Side Dish

U thru Z—Dessert

You should also bring a serving utensil for your dish.

Volunteer Incentive Program
Awards for 2015
will be presented tonight!

Gift Exchange

Our "Horsey Yankee Swap" gift exchange has been the hilarious highlight of our party for many years.

To participate, bring a gift-wrapped, "horsey" item valued at about $10.

For the most fun, make your gift something unique and desirable that every equestrian will want to keep, trade or steal!
